47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

Continuing broadband competition is essential to keep consumer choice of providers available and to keep prices from soaring when huge monopolies are given free rein.

We have both internet and phone service through Cruzio, a local independent provider whose prices are excellent and whose service is impeccable. We do not want to lose this wonderful service!!
